

I FALL DOWN By Kevin R. McCarthy
(1 Corinthians 13:12)

For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face.

Verse 1

I stand in wonder, I stand in awe of You
My Savior, Who gave Your life for me
When I think that the King of Glory, Died to set me free
It's too much for me, It brings me to my knees

Verse 2

On that cross You bore my shame,
You took my sorrow, all my pain
Forsaken and alone, The Father turned away
But the grave could not contain,, You raised to life that Glorious Day
No longer held by chains, The ransomed sing Your praise

Chorus 1

And I fall down on my knees, I come here in my need
This debt I could not pay, You freely paid for me
I fall down on my knees, Your servant I will be Bound by the blood and tears, You freely shed for me

Bridge

One day I will see You,
See You face to face
I'll Look into Your eyes,
And rest in endless grace
One day I will see You,
See You face to face
I'll Look into Your eyes, I'll look into Your eyes
And rest in endless grace

Chorus 2

And I'll fall down on my knees, Your servant I will be
Bound by the blood and tears, You freely shed for me
And I'll fall down on my knees, Your Glory I will see
Bound by the blood and tears, You freely shed for me
