

MY HOPE

BY: KEVIN R. MCCARTHY

This is my hope, This is my confidence
Your Promises are true

Wash all my fear, Wash all my doubts away
I put my trust in You

My hope is You alone
My hope is you alone
There's no other name, that I can stand upon
my hope is you alone

And in the storm
I cannot sink beneath these waves
When my eyes are fixed on You

But if I fall
And take my eyes off you
Your hand is there to save me
I'm reaching for your mercy

My hope is You alone
My hope is you alone
There's no other name, that I can stand upon
my hope is you alone

There is no other one
That I can stand upon

There is no other one
No place that I can run
No name I call upon
When I am overrun

I know this battle's won
The sting of death is gone
This hope I'm standing on
Is Jesus
