

The God Who Holds The Stars by Kevin R. McCarthy

Verse 1

You are my shelter in the storm
When I am weak you are strong
You conquer giants
Shut the mouths of lions
You Open prison doors

Pre-Chorus

What have I to fear
What can bring me harm
What can take me from your loving arms

Chorus

You are the God who holds the stars
And You hold me in Your arms
There is nothing left to fear
You're the God who holds the stars

Verse 2

You conquer giants
Shut the mouths of lions
You Open prison doors

Pre-Chorus

What have I to fear
What can bring me harm
What can take me from your loving arms

Chorus

You are the God who holds the stars
And You hold me in Your arms
There is nothing left to fear
You're the God who holds the stars
